

62A-5-302 Division responsibility.

The division is responsible:

- (1) for the supervision, care, and treatment of persons with an intellectual disability in this state who are committed to the division's jurisdiction under the provisions of this part; and
- (2) to evaluate and determine the most appropriate, least restrictive setting for an individual with an intellectual disability.

Amended by Chapter 366, 2011 General Session